Berlitz Virtual Classroom - live tuition via the internet

Berlitz, the worldwide leader in global communications, has added a new dimension to language learning - the Berlitz Virtual Classroom - live instruction via the internet. BVC is customized language training comprising a preset number of live lessons - either private or group lessons - scheduled as agreed.

What is the Berlitz Virtual Classroom?

Like all Berlitz language lessons, Berlitz Virtual Classroom lessons are conducted entirely in the target language by Berlitz instructors. After enrolment, students log on to the BVC website for scheduled lessons and converse with instructors in real time over the internet as they would at a Language Center. Course materials are combined with joint internet browsing to ensure that lessons are stimulating and up-to-date. Recording and playing back live lessons are all provided.

How do you get started?

Students enrol through a Berlitz Language Center where Berlitz staff will help them with the BVC course selection and registration.

- Assistance is given to students for every step of the BVC course selection and enrolment.
- Easy installation procedures, instructions for connecting to a class, recording and playing back live lessons are all clearly communicated.
- Students take a pre-course live session to familiarize themselves with the process before the first lesson.
- Students simply log on to the BVC website with a private user name and password for scheduled lessons.

Unique program benefits:

- Live instruction in the privacy of your home, office or hotel
- BVC teacher "travels" with you wherever you go
- Highly focused conversational training
- Each lesson can easily be recorded and played back for training and exercise
- Course materials include either Berlitz study material or eBerlitz Blended material
- Groups of employees at various locations can meet in the Berlitz Virtual Classroom
- Reports on learning progress sent to the student and the employer
- A final test to determine the achieved level of language competence

Who should use this program?

Students who want live instruction with a conversation focus to their programs, but who travel frequently or cannot easily travel to a Berlitz Language Center for instruction.
